2 Liturgical Education

Christ is present in the sacraments. The believer comes to know Christ intimately in the liturgical celebrations of the Church. Christ's saving action in the Paschal Mystery is celebrated in the sacraments. This is especially true in regard to the Eucharist. Catholics experience the closest communion with Jesus on earth that is possible when they receive his living Body and his Precious Blood in Holy Communion. Catechesis should promote an active, conscious and genuine participation in the liturgy of the Church and an understanding of the doctrinal truths of the Creed which are its foundation. (cf. NDC p. 60)

Children being catechized in Second Grade will:

- a. explain, in an age appropriate manner, the liturgical year (CCC 1163-1171)
- b. explain the meaning of the season of Advent and the season of Christmas (CCC 524-526)

- h. understand that God obliges us to keep holy the Lord's Day which we do, in part, by attending Mass each Sunday (CCC 1193, 1389)
- i. realize the importance of the church i.e., a place where Catholics gather to pray and celebrate the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, by visits to the church to become familiar with e.g., the altar, sacred vessels, vestments (liturgical colors), baptismal font, confessional, tabernacle, statues (CCC 1181-1186, 1379, 1408-1409)
- j. know about and celebrate some feasts of Mary, the Mother of God, as they occur in the liturgical year, e.g.,
 - Nativity of Mary, September 8
 - Immaculate Conception, December 8
 - Our Lady of Guadalupe, December 12
 - Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, January 1

3 Moral Formation

■ Catechesis must transmit the content of Christ’s moral teachings and conform the believer to Christ through personal transformation and conversion. It should encourage the faithful to give witness to Christ and His Church’s teaching in everyday life. As Catholics, we are called to carry the values of the Gospel and the teaching of our Church into the public square. (cf. NDC p. 61)

Children being catechized in Second Grade will:

- a. understand that our life is a gift from God and that we must care for our life and the lives of others (CCC 1996, 2258)
- b. understand that we grow in mind, body and spirit in Christ (CCC5, 1254, 1308)
- c. understand that God teaches us to be kind and loving to our friends and neighbors, those who are different and those who are like us (CCC 1697, 1700)
- d. understand, in an age appropriate way, the love, respect and obedience children should show in the family (CCC 2214, 2216-2217)
- e. realize that we should respect and care for God’s gift of creation (CCC 299, 2402)
- f. know that conscience is a voice within our hearts where God has written his law calling us to love and to choose to do what is good and avoid evil (CCC 1776)
- g. understand that sin is an offense against God (CCC 1850)
- h. identify that mortal sin destroys the life of God within us by a grave violation of God’s law, we lose sanctifying grace, are no longer in full union with the Church but remain children of God and members of the Church; the Sacrament of Penance is for all sinful members of the Church especially those who have fallen into grave sin (CCC 1855-1859, 1861, 1446)
- i. identify that venial sin is a less serious offense but weakens our relationship with God and others (CCC 1855, 1862-1863)

- j. recognize that receiving Holy Communion increases union with the Lord, forgives venial sin, and helps to preserve us from mortal sin (CCC 1416)
- k. realize the difference between situations of accident or carelessness and deliberate moral choice (CCC 387, 1860)

4 Teaching to Pray

■ Conversion to Christ and communion with him lead the faithful to his disposition of prayer and reflection. Jesus' entire life, death and Resurrection were an offering to the Father. The Our Father is the prayer that Jesus taught us to pray and the model of all Christian prayer. The handing on of the Our Father is a summary of the whole Gospel and a true act of catechesis. The most effective catechesis is permeated by a climate of prayer. (cf. NDC p. 61)

Children being catechized in Second Grade will:

- a. understand that prayer is a gift from God, the raising of our hearts and minds to God and a relationship with God (CCC 2559, 2564)
- b. understand, in an age appropriate manner, that there are different forms of prayer:
 - adoration (blessing) (CCC 2628)
 - supplication (petition, intercession, contrition) (CCC 2629, 2631, 2634)
 - thanksgiving (gratitude) (CCC 2637)
 - praise (CCC 2639)
- c. know that the Our Father has a special place in the prayers of the church and in the Mass and that this prayer is found in the New Testament. Luke 11:2-4; Matthew 6:9-13, (CCC 2773-2776)
- d. understand that there are other prayers in the Bible and prayers that are based on the Scriptures: e.g.,
 - The Lord is my Shepherd, Psalm 23: 1-6
 - Shout joyfully to God, all you on earth; sing his glorious name; give him glorious praise, Psalm 66:1-2
 - Hail Mary, Luke 1:26-33
 - My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my savior, Luke 1:47 (CCC 2697, 2757, 2759)
- e. understand that daily prayer e.g., before and after meals, before bedtime, before an automobile trip, is a way of life for Christians (CCC 2659-2660)
- f. know that prayer may be said at anytime or place but special places for prayer are the home, Church and in classes where we learn about God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit (CCC 2743, 2659-2660; NDC p.203)

- g. learn/review the following prayers; the Church teaches: “The memorization of basic prayers offers an essential support to the life of prayer, but it is important to help learners savor their meaning.” (CCC 2688)
- Sign of the Cross
 - Our Father
 - Hail Mary
 - Glory Be
 - Act of Contrition
 - Grace before and after Meals
 - Morning Prayer and Prayer at bedtime
 - Angel of God
 - Introduction to the Rosary (this is a lengthy prayer for children of this age yet since many receive a rosary at the time of First Communion some introduction seems appropriate)
 - Introduction to the Stations of the Cross

Note: See Appendices of this curriculum and of Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

5 Education for Community Life

■ Jesus said to his disciples: “Love one another as I have loved you.” (John 13:34) This command guides the disciple’s life in the Catholic Church and global community. Catechesis should encourage: a) an apprenticeship in Catholic living b) a spirit of simplicity and humility c) special concern for the poor d) care for the alienated and the immigrant stranger e) fraternal correction and love f) common prayer and g) mutual forgiveness. Members of the Body of Christ receive special graces and gifts to help build up the Church. Ecumenical charity and sensitivity as well as a zeal for unity among Christians are emphasized. (cf. NDC p. 61)

Children being catechized in Second Grade will:

- a. know that Jesus commands us to love God and love our neighbor, John 13:34-35, Luke 10:25-28
- b. understand that common prayer, Matthew 18:19, inclusive of family prayer, is a way of life for Christians (CCC 2685, 2694, 2696)
- c. understand that when other children are doing something wrong we should tell them to stop or tell parents/teachers (CCC 1829)
- d. know that we can make choices and our choices effect the lives of others (CCC 1800)
- e. realize that we must forgive others when they express sorrow for having hurt us and we must say we are sorry and ask forgiveness when we have hurt another person, Matthew 18:22 (CCC 1657, 2227, 2840, 2845)
- f. realize that Jesus founded the Catholic Church that we might all be one and at the same time to understand that not everyone is a

Catholic and that some of our relatives, playmates and neighbors may worship in other Christian denominations that believe in Jesus Christ (CCC 816, 818)

- g. recognize that God has entrusted to all human beings responsibility for the world and all its creatures (CCC 373)
- h. understand that along with others in our family, parish, school and neighborhood, we practice the charity of the Lord in good works and love for all especially the poor (CCC 2179)

6 Missionary Initiation

■ Catechesis seeks to form disciples of Christ who bear witness to their Catholic faith in society. A missionary spirit of evangelization is cultivated and nourished by the teaching and attitudes of Jesus Christ. Every means should be used to encourage vocations to the Priesthood and religious life and to awaken special missionary vocations. Catechesis recognizes that other religious traditions reflect the “seeds of the Word” that can allow for both “inter-religious dialogue” and “evangelization.” (cf. GDC 86)

Children being catechized in Second Grade will:

- a. realize that Jesus asks us to share the Good News of the Gospel and our Catholic faith with those we meet; (for this age such sharing would be mainly to relatives and friends) (CCC 905)
- b. understand that when we receive Holy Communion we receive the Body and Blood of Christ which strengthens us to share our faith with others (CCC 1396)
- c. understand that the Church asks us to pray for vocations to the priesthood, and to the different forms of consecration to God in religious and apostolic life, Luke 10:1-2 (CCC 1587, 1595, 1986)
- d. learn that many priests heard the call of God to priesthood as young boys and that if that call is heard, they should pray about it and talk to their parents and a priest about the priesthood (CCC 1589, 2253)
- e. realize that many people in the parish assist the priest at Mass as altar servers, lectors, cantors, extraordinary ministers of communion, ushers, and that someday they too, may assist at Mass (CCC 897, 903)
- f. realize that wherever they are: school, home, church, playground, stores, houses of friends/relatives, they are followers of Jesus and their behavior should show that they are Christians (CCC 2013)
- g. recognize that we call Jesus the Prince of Peace and Jesus’ words “Blessed are the Peacemakers”, Matthew 5:9, call all to foster peace in the various situations of their lives (CCC 2305)
